FIELD TRAINING OFFICER (FTO) VIDEO SCENARIOS

California Commission on POST
Presents a series of video scenarios whose goal is to train Field Training Officers (FTOs) to properly and consistently evaluate their trainees. The purpose of the video is to have the viewer watch examples of common occurrences with trainees and determine specific issues a FTO should address without the distractions of arrest methods and other agency specific tactical and operational issues. (70 min. total)

For information about printed instructor materials that accompany this video, contact the POST Basic Training Bureau at (916) 227-3935.

The video is organized into four sets of scenes. Each set contains at least three law enforcement contacts involving the same FTO and trainee team. Types of contacts include:

Set A - Shoplifting, Domestic Violence, Traffic Stop (14:50 min.)

Set B - Burglary Report, Armed Robbery, Auto Burglary in Progress (13:25 min.)

Set C - W&I 5150, Hate Crime in Progress, Missing Person Report (14:30 min.)

Set D - Drunk in Public, Loud Music, Narcotics Violation in Progress (10:50 min.)

VEHICLE STOPS: ORDERING THE OCCUPANTS "IN" PEOPLE v. CASTELLON

with Dan McNerney
Courts have previously upheld an officer's right to order occupants to exit the vehicle during a traffic stop for purposes of officer safety. In this case, the court held that the same justification can be used to order the occupants to remain inside the vehicle. Cases/Statutes cited: Maryland v. Wilson (1997) 519 U.S. 408; People v. Castellon (1999) 76 CA 4th 1369. (7:52 min.)

HOMICIDE: DROPPING THE DURESS DEFENSE PEOPLE v. SON

with Don Ingraham
A gang murder in San Diego, from which one of the killers fled back to Cambodia, demonstrates how determination and adaptability in an investigation can result in a conviction despite the odds. Cases/Statutes cited: People v. Son 79 Cal App4 224 (approx. 6:00 min.)

DETENTIONS: IS RACE A FACTOR? U.S. v. MONTERO-CAMARGO

with Devallis Rutledge
Border Patrol agents, tipped by a motorist, stopped two vehicles and found illegal aliens with drugs and ammo. The Ninth Circuit upheld the stop, but overruling an earlier decision, held that ethnicity and suspicionless conduct could not be factors in establishing reasonable suspicion. Cases/Statutes cited: U.S. v. Montero-Camargo (9th Circuit 2000) DAR 3733. (8:11 min.)

RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY PEOPLE v. JACOBS

with Don Ingraham
What starts as a routine response to a hot tool sale in Antioch winds up with a breakthrough decision on the use of a suspect's story as a wedge for his impeachment. Cases/Statutes cited: People v. Jacobs 78 Cal App 1444. (approx. 6:00 min.)

TRAFFIC STOP SAFETY LUGTU v. CHP

with William Bedsworth
In this case, the Court of Appeal held that a law enforcement officer has a duty of reasonable care to the occupant of a motor vehicle that is stopped for a traffic violation. Justice Bedsworth discusses the case and reviews some of CHP's guidelines for safe citation stops. Cases/Statutes cited: Lugtu v. CHP (2000) Daily Journal DAR 3169 (Mar. 28, 2000); Whitton v. State of CA (1979) 98 Cal App 3d 235. (8:30 min.)

ELEMENTS OF ASSAULT PEOPLE v. HYUN

with Don Ingraham
This case adds a new element to P.C. Section 12020 Dirk and Dagger, of which the field officer and the charging D.A. needs to be aware. Cases/Statutes cited: People v. Hyun 77 Cal App 4 285. (approx. 6:00 min.)

The opinions expressed in Case Law Today segments reflect the views and interpretations of the individual legal experts featured. Because legal interpretations vary, and many cases are timely in nature, viewers are encouraged to check with local prosecutors and review their respective departmental policies.

COPS AND SCHOOLS (00-06)

Effective school policing can do wonders for a law enforcement agency's community relations, while ineffective procedures can spell disaster. This telecourse gives patrol officers and supervisors practical information about policing school campuses. The program examines how schools fit into the law enforcement beat, with emphasis on the following topics:

- ◆ Types of service calls that bring patrol officers to schools
- ◆ Community Policing and schools
- ◆ Philosophy of the juvenile justice system
- ◆ School rules, the school system, and relevant state and federal laws
- ◆ Understanding students and contemporary youth culture
- ◆ Communication strategies for working with students, parents, and staff
- ◆ Critical incident preparation and response on school campuses

Law enforcement agencies and POST-certified course presenters are authorized to record the telecourse. This telecourse and most previously broadcast telecourses are eligible for the award of continuing professional training (CPT) credits if facilitated by a POST-certified telecourse presenter. Agencies should contact their POST area representative for instructions on becoming a POST-certified telecourse presenter. Certified presenters of POST Advanced Officer Courses or Skills and Knowledge Modular training courses may also use the telecourse videotapes as part of those courses. Single copies of telecourse reference guides (when applicable) are mailed directly to POST-certified telecourse presenters in advance of the telecourse broadcast.

The course module number for Cops and Schools is 00-06. POST telecourse coordinators should document all telecourse attendance on the POST Course Roster, Form 2-111 (live or recorded), and note the module number in the Comment section of the roster. POST-participating agencies without a satellite dish that cannot secure a copy of the telecourse may order VHS copies by calling 800.441.7678. Contact your local law enforcement agency training office for information on telecourse viewing and presentation. Telecourse training is not reimbursable.
